

Rödl & Partner

The data controller in respect of the information provided in the form above is Roedl Outsourcing sp. z o.o. of Warsaw, Poland, ul. Sienna 73, 00-833 Warsaw (<https://www.roedl.pl>). The data provided in the above form will be used for the webinar purposes (especially to confirm registration, remind you about the event and send subject-related content).

The Data Controller has a Data Protection Officer appointed, contact details: e-mail: gdpr.biznes@roedl.com.

The personal data will be used exclusively in connection with the webinar. The personal data processing is based on the legitimate interest of the controller, namely to ensure correct webinar organisation. The personal data will be processed for as long as the webinar-related obligations have to be fulfilled and until the statute of limitations ends or until the date on which an objection raised pursuant to Article 21 GDPR is considered. The provision of the personal data is voluntary but necessary to register and participate in the webinar.

You have the right to:

- request that we inform you in detail about the way we use your personal data;
- request that we rectify any inaccuracies in the data that we hold;
- request that we delete all data for the processing of which we no longer have legal grounds;
- request that we restrict the processing of your personal data e.g. for the period of handling a complaint.

Furthermore, you have the right to object to the specific processing of your personal data on grounds of your legitimate interest for reasons related to your particular situation, unless our grounds for data processing override your interests, rights and freedoms.

If despite our support you conclude that your personal data are processed unlawfully, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority – President of the Personal Data Protection Office.

The personal data we process will be transmitted only to parties which provide and support the IT systems at our request.
