Press Release

Rödl & Partner expands Transaction Services team to Warsaw, Poland

Warsaw, 1 April 2025: Rödl & Partner is pleased to announce the launch of its Financial Transaction Services team in Warsaw, Poland. This expansion of our interdisciplinary transaction team is part of Rödl & Partner's ongoing commitment to provide comprehensive transactional financial services to its clients. The new team will be led by Daniel Antonik, who brings over 18 years of experience in corporate finance, most recently with PwC in Poland.

Daniel Antonik will focus on transaction-related advisory services on the buy- and sell-side in Poland, complementing Rödl & Partner's existing legal, tax and audit services. "I believe that Rödl & Partner is very well positioned to secure a strong position as a quality-orientated advisor for mid-market transactions for both strategists and private equity investors in the Polish market. Poland's rapidly growing economy offers us the opportunity to establish a successful interdisciplinary transaction advisory team. This will allow us to offer our clients the significant added value of an integrated approach transactions."

Peter Längle, Partner Team Corporate Finance, was very pleased about the expansion: "I am delighted that our European Corporate Finance team is now also active in Poland after Germany and the UK. Poland is the largest market for equity trading in Eastern Europe. And Daniel is very experienced and well connected in the sector. This will allow us to grow the team together and utilise our cross-border expertise."

Renata Kabas-Komorniczak, Managing Partner at Rödl & Partner, added: "We are delighted to expand our existing service portfolio by now also offering financial transaction services to clients in Poland. In Poland, fast-growing Rödl & Partner employs more than 640 colleagues in six offices and we are constantly working to provide our clients with the highest level of professional services from a single source."
