Rödl & Partner Awarded Distinctions In 2020 Tax Consultancy Firms Ranking by Rzeczpospolita

In the 15th edition of the Tax Consultancy Firms Ranking by Rzeczpospolita, Rödl & Partner has been awarded distinctions in several categories. In the category of companies with the largest number of tax advisers, Rödl & Partner ranked fifth. The firm's headcount increased compared with the previous year, with currently 42 licensed advisers on board. This confirms that Rödl & Partner is continuously investing in the development of its employees and tax services.

As regards the ranking of the best advisers in individual disciplines of tax law, Katarzyna Judkowiak, tax adviser and Partner at Rödl & Partner, was awarded the title of the best tax adviser in the 'compliance' category. Winning this category confirms her long-term experience and professional achievements.

Dominika Tyczka-Szyda, tax adviser and Associate Partner at Rödl & Partner, was among the recommended advisers in the 'transfer pricing' category.

With cross-functional teams, we provide comprehensive tax compliance and transfer pricing consulting services. What does tax compliance mean for us? Tax compliance is more than just procedures. It is, above all, digital tools, implemented monitoring and reporting processes and trained employees capable of identifying risks. The modern solutions we offer help avoid tax risks. Understanding the need to digitise services, globalise, centralise and simplify processes, Rödl & Partner meets the market and clients' expectations with a revolutionary tool called "TP Factory". The tool brings together our expertise from numerous global transfer pricing documentation projects and ensures efficient, consistent and, above all, uniform reporting of transfer pricing documentation for international companies. Despite the universal nature of the solution, all our projects are tailor-made and adjusted to the individual needs and business objectives of our clients.

Furthermore, Rödl & Partner ranked ninth among companies with the highest revenue in 2020.

According to Renata Kabas-Komorniczak, Managing Partner at Rödl & Partner, the high positions that Rödl & Partner has taken for many years in Rzeczpospolita ranking are the result of systematic and consistent work of all advisers who, despite the current environment shaped by the pandemic in Poland, do their best to maintain strong and sustainable relations with clients, show care and offer support in their development. Today, consulting services focus more on complex, intricate and interdisciplinary issues that require a high level of up-to-date expertise in particular areas. Our experts are constantly improving their qualifications, streamlining business processes using advanced technological tools and searching for the best solutions. These skills are essential for being ranked among the best advisers and tax consulting firms on the Polish market.
