Rödl & Partner expands operations on the Norwegian market

The Norwegian company Omega Accounting AS and the Polish company Polish Connection sp. z o.o. have joined Rödl & Partner, thus strengthening its presence on the Norwegian market and the coast of Poland.

Omega Accounting AS' joining Rödl & Partner results in the expansion of Rödl & Partner's business on the Norwegian market to include a comprehensive range of accounting and outsourcing services. This is an outcome of successful collaboration with Seland, Rödl & Partner, a firm offering high-end legal and tax advice and one of the leading international legal brands in Norway.

Owing to Omega Accounting AS' experienced employees, Rödl & Partner can now provide its clients with top-notch services ranging from financial accounting, HR and payroll accounting to corporate housekeeping and compliance, drawing from long-standing experience gained on the demanding Norwegian market. "Few can look back to such a rich history of helping foreign investors settle and successfully operate in Norway, which itself is easily one of the most interesting markets in Europe", says Jens-Christian Pastille, Partner at Rödl & Partner.

Aleksandra Fajfer Eriksen, founder and chairman of the board of Omega Accounting AS, who will represent the brand together with Seland, Rödl & Partner in the far North, adds: "I am looking forward to this new world of opportunities – looking for an even better portfolio of services for our clients I immediately felt that the Rödl & Partner family is the perfect fit – globally active and yet deeply rooted in its markets."

The Omega Group also includes Polish Connection sp. z o.o., a renown outsourcing boutique serving the developing Polish-Nordic business community. The office provides professional services to individuals and enterprises operating in Norway or planning to open business there. The takeover of Polish Connection sp. z o.o. is therefore a welcome reinforcement of the already strong presence of Rödl & Partner on the Polish coast.

The entire transaction was supervised and taken care of by Jens-Christian Pastille, Partner responsible for the Nordics at Rödl & Partner. He was supported by Lars-Göran Larsson, Partner at Rödl & Partner Sweden, and Renata Kabas-Komorniczak, Rödl & Partner's Managing Partner.

"This is very good and encouraging news for us. Our firm is already present in Sweden, Finland, Denmark and Norway. Nevertheless, joining forces with Omega Accounting AS and Polish Connection sp. z o.o. offers us even more development opportunities and a chance to expand our operations into the Scandinavian market", says Renata Kabas-Komorniczak.
