New Partner at Rödl & Partner Poland

Dominika Tyczka-Szyda has been appointed as a new Partner at Rödl & Partner Poland. The official appointment ceremony took place during the international Forum Global event in Nuremberg.

Dominika Tyczka-Szyda is a tax adviser, transfer pricing specialist, member of Rödl & Partner's international transfer pricing team and working group within the Transfer Pricing Forum, as well as MDR Officer.

She is an award-winning and distinguished expert – she is among the best tax law experts recommended by Rzeczpospolita.

She also ranked 3rd among top tax advisers in CIT category of Dziennik Gazeta Prawna. She has authored numerous presentations and publications, and is a PhD student at the Faculty of Management, Information Technology and Finance of the Wrocław University of Economics and Business.

She started her professional career at Rödl & Partner in 2010 as an Assistant in the Legal and Tax Department. She was appointed Senior Associate in 2014 and Associate Partner 2017. She has been in charge of the Tax and Legal Department in Wrocław and Rödl & Partner's transfer pricing team in Poland since 2018. She currently manages a team of nearly 30 people.

Becoming a Partner makes me feel honoured and appreciated for my commitment and performance over the last 12 years. This promotion is an opportunity for me to further develop the Tax Department, transfer pricing team and the Rödl & Partner brand in Poland. For me, the team always comes first and this will never change. I thank my team for where we are today and look ahead to further collaboration, challenges and development – emphasises the newly appointed Partner, Dominika Tyczka-Szyda.
